

Feeling Shorted? Strategic Planning for Managing Drug Shortages and Preventing Medication Safety Events (Technician) - EVALUATION

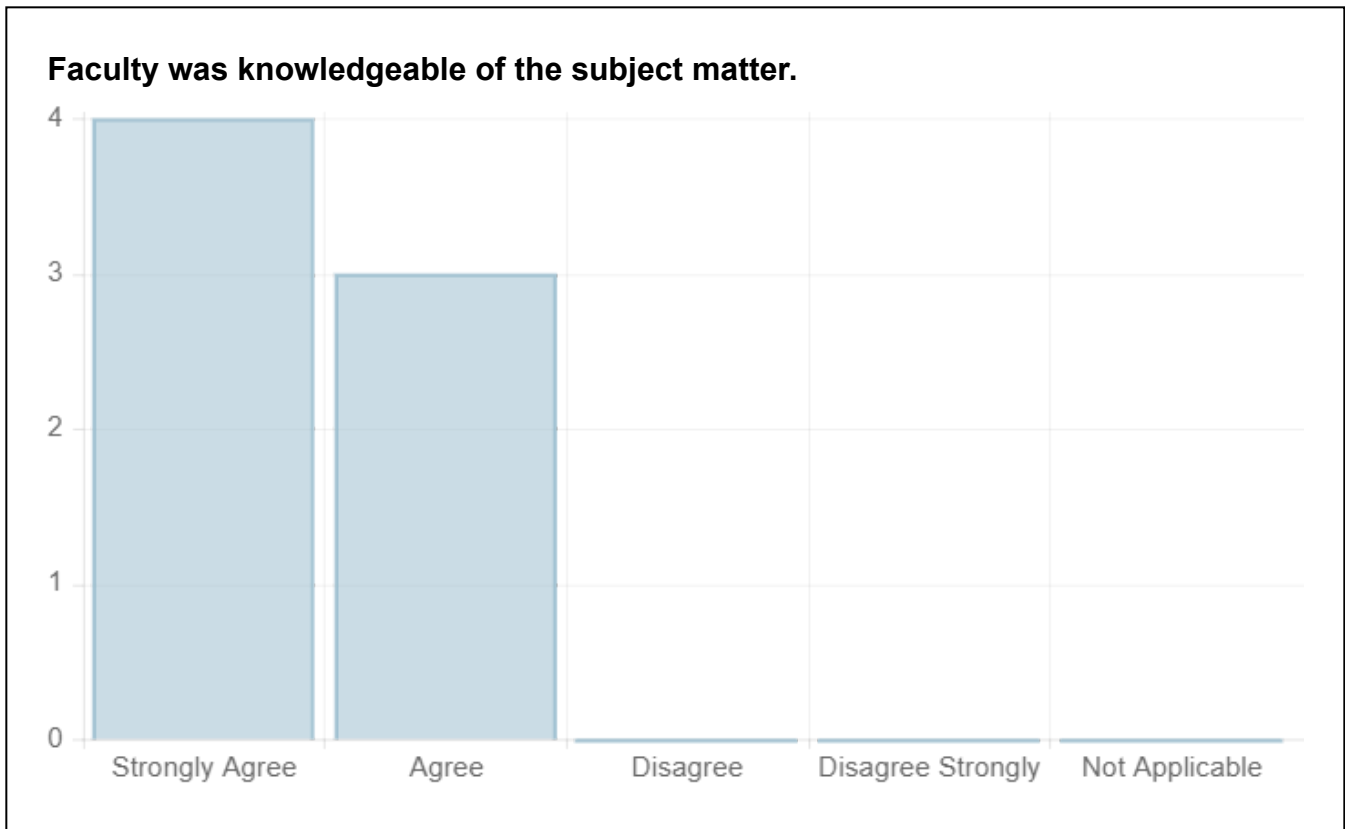

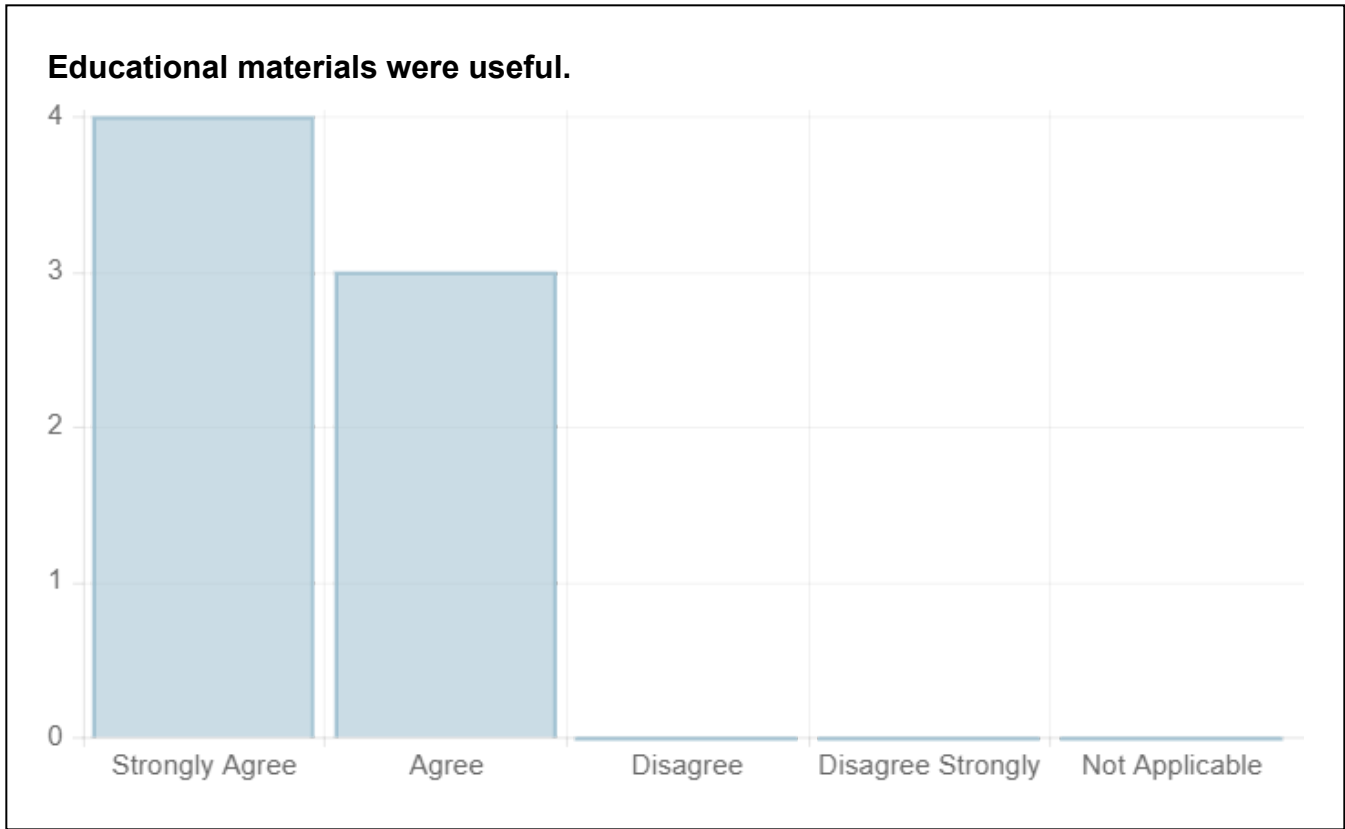

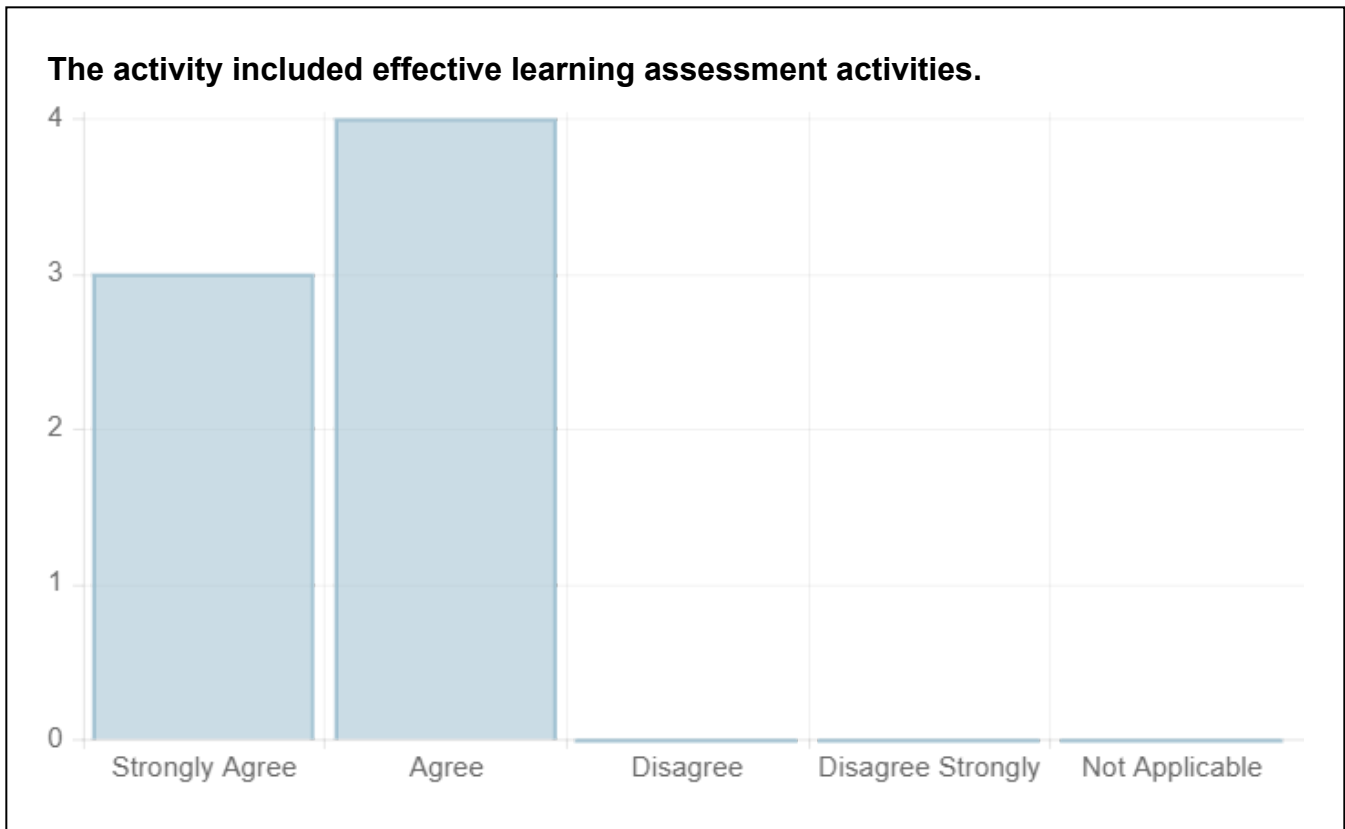

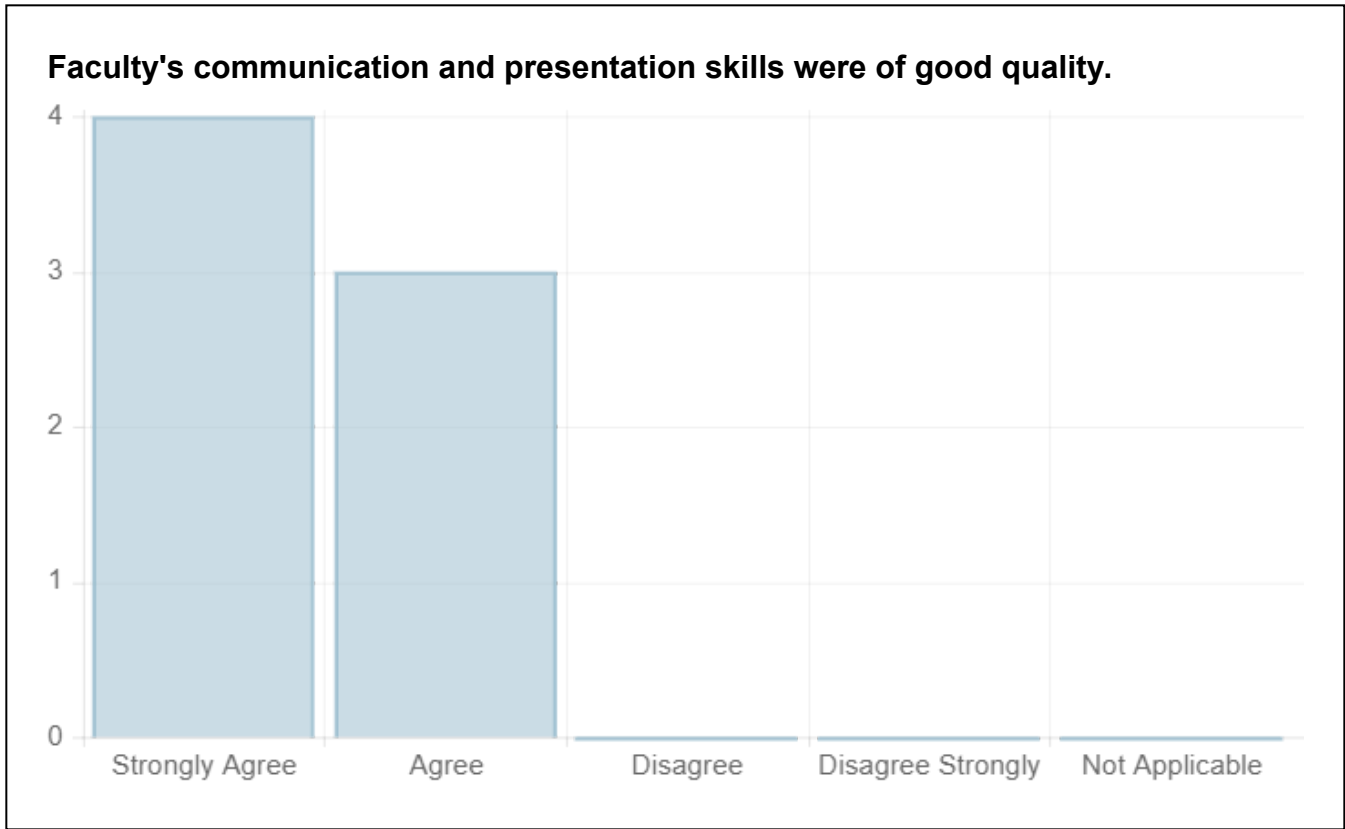

If you feel that faculty was not qualified on this subject matter, please explain why.

THE FACULTY WAS QUALIFIED ON THIS MATTER.

Presenter was qualified

I felt both speakers were well qualified and obviously had personal experience to draw on

NA

Qualified

Qualified

They were qualified

What aspects of this program should have received more attention?

Great presentation overall. Specific examples of certain drug shortage reasons (when reported) are always interesting

I FELT THE PROGRAM WAS GREAT.

I was satisfied on the way it was covered

None

None.

No opinion

What is being done about shortages.

What one thing will you do differently after participating in this activity?

Nothing

Advocate for a team.

Advocate for change

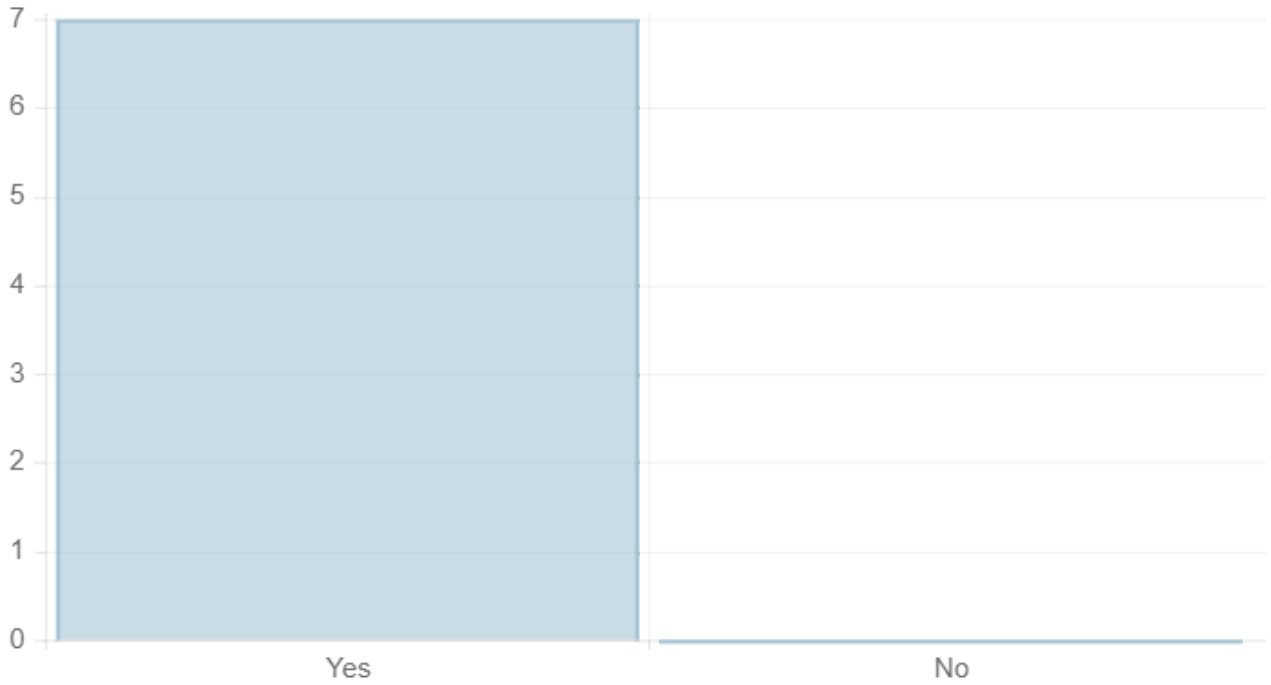

I WOULDN'T HAVE DONE ANYTHING DIFFERENTLY.

I will try to think of different ways to handle shortages

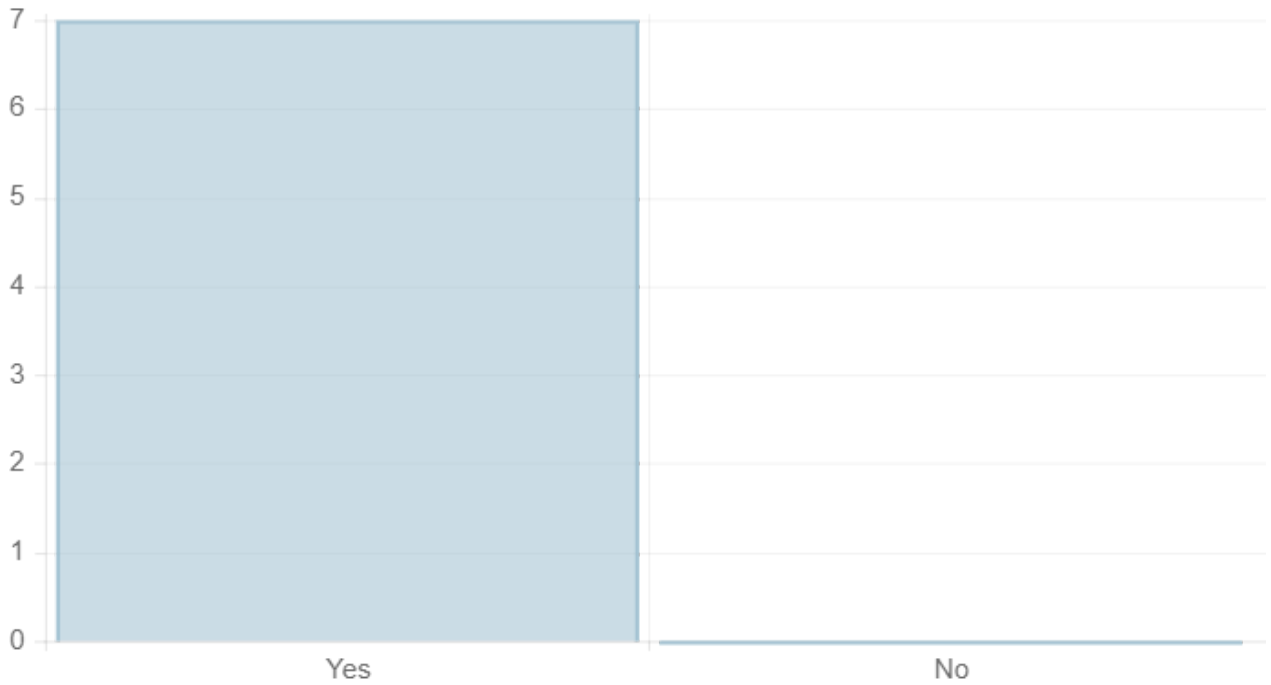

Look into a more robust shortage management team at our facility to try to get ahead of the game for when unplanned shortages strike suddenly

Be slower to frustration about shortages

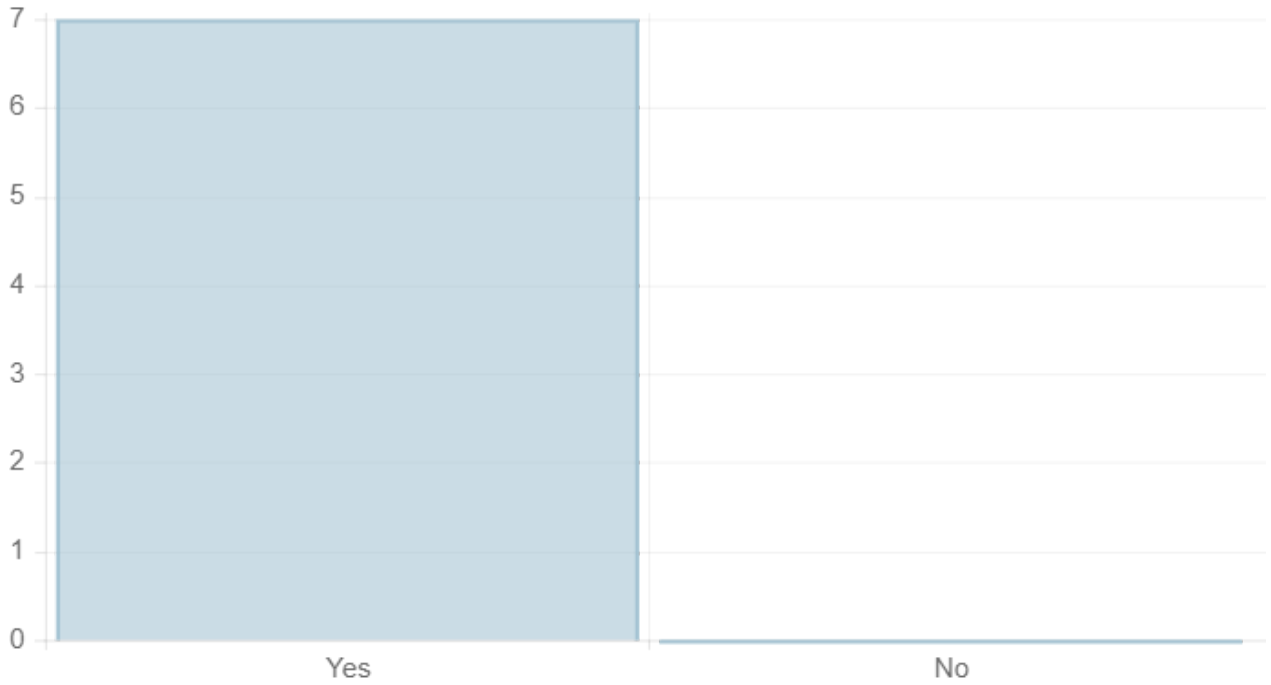

Explain various etiologies of medication shortages.

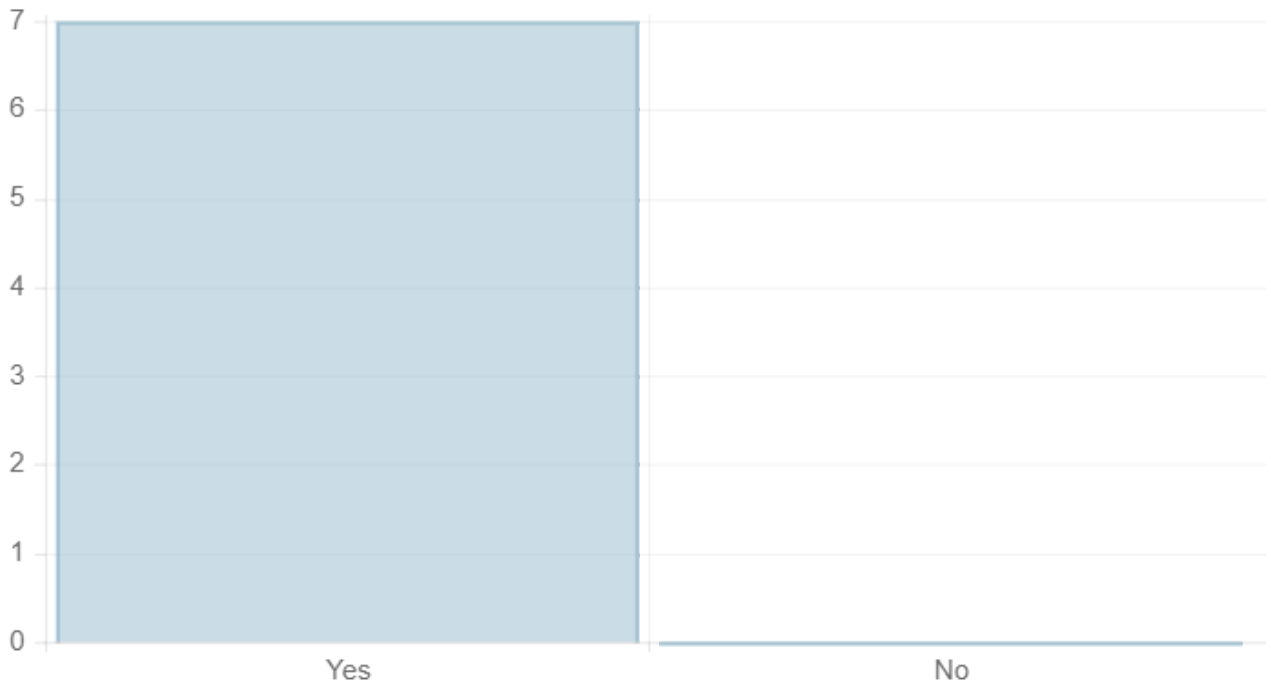

Discuss techniques helpful for current and future medication shortage management.

Describe most common errors involved with medication shortages.

Describe strategies to minimize patient harm related to drug shortages.

Additional Comments:

Great presentation!

It was good to be made more aware of errors in patient care that can be caused by shortages

None

None

None.

No opinion

I LEARNED A LOT DURING THIS PROGRAM. I WAS SHOCKED THAT MANUFACTURERS DIDN'T HAVE TO STATED WHERE THEY RECIEVED RAW MATERIALS FROM. I ALSO WAS SURPRISED THAT THEY COULD WAIT UNTIL THEY WERE FIVE DAYS INTO A SHORTAGE BEFORE ANNOUNCING IT. I WAS ALSO SURPRISED THEY DIDN'T HAVE TO GIVE A REASON FOR WHY THERE WAS A SHORTAGE. I AM CURIOUS ABOUT THE QUALITY GRADING FOR MANUFACTURERS THAT WAS DISCUSSED.