The 2009 MPF Golf Classic is approaching fast. Registration for the Golf Classic closes on June 10. Register yourself or your foursome today!

MPF Golf Classic Moves to the Inn at St. John's in Plymouth

This year's Golf Classic will be played at the picturesque Inn at St. John's, located in Plymouth, Mich.

Once again, golfers will play in a four-person scramble format, with flights for men's and mixed teams.

Register your foursome (or yourself) by May 29 and save by taking advantage of the MPF stimulus, giving you a significant discount. Foursomes cost only $600, and a single golfer is $150. Beginning June 1, 2009, registration costs will be $700 per foursome, and a single golfer $175.

The Inn at St. John's offers 27 holes of championship golf, located on more than 192 acres of unique terrain in Plymouth. The course features a wide array of peaks and valleys and presents unique challenges to all calibers of golfers. The beauty of the tree-lined fairways is complemented by the panoramic view of one of southeast Michigan's most picturesque landmarks, the Inn at St. John's, formerly a Romanesque seminary.
